Cases Brought In Superior Court

Many Returned to Clerk for First Tuesday of April—Causes are Varied and Amounts Likewise.

About thirty new suits have been returned to the clerk of the superior court for the first Tuesday of April.
Those returned Tuesday were:
Edwin W. and H. D. Brewer of the firm of Brewer & Co. of Worcester, have brought suit against Napoleon Parent and Treffe Parent of Norwich.
Against the former damages of $800 are sought, which includes a note for $711.92 and $100 loaned. Against Treffe Parent, who endorsed the note, the same claim is made in separate suit.

Suit for $4,000.
The John T. Young Boiler company has brought suit against Clinton F.
Smith of Boston for $4,000 damages, claiming $2,174.77 on an agreement, $1,000 on supplies furnished, and $800 on an account.
On a common count the White-Warner company of Taunton sues Jos.
Thorp of Stonington for $4,000, to recover the sum of $3,323.27.

W. J. Walsh et al. of Holyoke sues J. J. O'Donovan on a common count to recover $1,000.

Divorce Case.
Agnes A. Jullin of Griswold seeks a divorce from George J. Jullin of the same town. Her maiden name was Agnes A. Vars and they were married January 10, 1906. Since January 1, 1909, he has been intolerably cruel, and the grounds she asks for the divorce and change of name.

Suit on a Bond of $7,000.
A suit is brought by the state of Connecticut against Theodore W. Yer-rington et al. for $7,000 damages, it being a suit on the bond of Mr. Yer-rington as administrator of the estate of Ezra W. Yerrington. He was appointed May 2, 1904, and his first account was filed July 16, 1904, and it was accepted. It showed property for distribution of $14,904.43. It is claimed that the administrator has failed to apply for distribution and it is claimed that the property for distribution has become lost and dissipated to the damage of those interested. This action is brought for the special benefit of Mrs. Mary N. Yerrington.

On a common count S. S. Morrell & Co. of New Haven sues Jos. Thorp of Stonington for $3,500.

Foreclosure Claim.
W. R. Lathrop et al. sues Joseph Swartzburg, Jr., et al. for the foreclosure of a mortgage on property and possession of the same to recover on notes of $1,400.

Gave Her His Bankbook.
Annie Daly of Norwich sues the Norwich Savings society for $4,000 damages. She claims that in September, 1909, Murry Shea, Jr., of Norwich had on deposit there $3,402.02, and that he gave her as a gift the money and the bankbook to the plaintiff and delivered the same to her. The defendant refused to turn over the money.

Sudden Death of
WILLIAM H. DAVIS.
Had Not Complained of Feeling Bad, But Fell Headlong Out of His Chair.

Toppling out of a kitchen chair, William H. Davis, a veteran of the Civil war, died at New London Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock before Mrs. David H. Branch, who was in the kitchen, could reach him. Mr. Davis sat by the kitchen range, talking to her, when he suddenly fell headlong out of the chair which would befall him.
Davis' conversation ended abruptly and he expired.

Mr. Davis lived with Mr. and Mrs.
Branch in Reed court, in the rear of 40 Reed street. He was distantly related to Mrs. Branch. Previously he had been an inmate of the Soldiers' home.

He had not once complained of feeling poorly, although it had been known for years that he was afflicted by a weak heart. He is believed to have been cheerfully as usual and in no way seemed depressed.

When Mrs. Branch saw Mr. Davis fall she went to him, and finding that nothing more serious than a faintness would be able to cope with was the matter, asked someone to get a physician. A doctor found death had been instantaneous and summoned Medical Examiner Lee. The medical examiner gave his opinion as death due to a disease of the heart.

Mr. Davis was about 73 years of age. No relative nearer than Mrs.
Branch are known.

Mr. Davis was a veteran of the Civil war. He was a member of Sedgwick post at Norwich, having joined that organization when he resided in Jewett City. He was for a short time of late in the Soldiers' home at Noroton, but was not contented there and he returned to New London to reside with his niece, Mrs. David C. Branch.

Mr. Davis was fond of telling his army experiences and in years past entertained all who heard him. He was said to have been a wonderful marksmen during his army experience and related instances of his skill with a rifle. He will probably be buried on the plot of Federal post in Cedar Grove cemetery.

EXQUISITE SHADING
In Materials Employed in This Ses-sion's Millinery—Smart Designs Admired at Tuesday's Opening—Children's Hats a Feature.

A noticeable point about the hats displayed this season is the almost infinite variety of shades in straws, brides, plumes, flowers, etc. This is an assurance to the shopper that she can be certain of matching her spring gown to perfection, thereby securing that harmony in costume which is so much to be desired.

All the favored tints of spring were on view in the hats admired at Tuesday's opening. Dainty and seasonable were pretty box turbans of lilies of the valley and tiny rosebuds, with entire brim of black velvet, and butterfly bow of shaded green ribbon at the back.

A favorite model was a royal blue chip with white straw flange. Tagal stripes in blue and black forming a big bow across the front, with French knot and band of black velvet ribbon.
Fascinating and really different was a big of burnt braid, its adornment a big standing bow of black and white, with pansy velvet ribbon edge.

POSTOFFICE CLOSING Stirred Up Much Interest Among the Carriers.

The idea of closing the postoffice Sundays as far as the carriers are concerned interested deeply those members of the postoffice force as well as the clerks.
The first assistant postmaster general has written to the postmasters throughout the country in regard to the matter. The situation now concerns the carriers and as practically all of them are scheduled for 48 hours work during the week of six days it is impossible for the department to allow them compensatory time for this Sunday work under the present conditions. It is thought the delivery of mails through the carriers' windows can be affected without inconvenience.
This, it is thought, could be done by keeping the general delivery window open a sufficient time to accommodate the public for urgent mail. Mail will be received and despatched as usual, the clerks working that time, getting compensatory time off during the week while business men desiring their mail on Sunday could rent boxes or have mail sent by special carrier. The collection of street boxes will not be discontinued.

To learn the attitude of the public in regard to Sunday closing the postmasters were requested to take the matter up with the press, ministers, religious and commercial bodies.

There is still hope. Perhaps if the senate votes to admit Arizona, Joe Bailey will resign in earnest—Cleveland Leader.

AVOID LIFE LONG SKIN TROUBLES Skin sufferers! Do you realize that to go through life tortured and disfigured by itching, burning, scaly and crusted eczemas and other skin and scalp humors is in the majority of cases unnecessary? It is simply a question of selecting the proper remedial agents. That Cuticura soap and Cuticura ointment are undoubtedly such, is, we believe, proven by over thirty years of undisputed success throughout the world. They afford immediate relief in the most distressing cases, when the usual methods fail.

MEDICAL AND HOSPITAL CORPS
Last in the State to Be Remodeled—Orders of the Adjutant General.

The latest orders from the office of the adjutant general provide for the reorganization of the medical department and hospital corps of the C. N. G. to conform to the United States army regulations. The medical and hospital organizations are the last in the state service to be remodeled. All other branches are as near as it is possible to make them to correspond with the branches of the United States army.

The detachments of the hospital corps are to be abolished. Companies of sanitary troops and ambulance troops will be formed out of the old organization. These companies will be in the larger cities, where they may be drilled together. Officers and men will be assigned to each regiment of infantry and the Coast Artillery corps, when in camp. All of the officers will be surgeons, the highest rank to be that of major.
